Course Description

This course focuses on American mass communication and its relation to society. Examined are theories in mass communication, contemporary issues and media effects. Specifics studied include the impact of mass communications on cultural, institutional, political and social groups in U.S. society and the systems of mass communication that weave society together. The twin emphases of this course are (1) how the different mass communication delivery and support systems -- advertising, public relations, broadcasting, film, the Internet, and print journalism -- shape society and individuals adversely, or in a pro-social fashion, and (2) how the media in turn are influenced by individuals, interest groups and institutions.

Course Goals and Learning Outcomes

General Education Learning Outcomes (GELOs):

- GELO1. Produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in:
- Language use
 - Grammar
 - Clarity of expression
- GELO2. Explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse.
- GELO3. Organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences.
- GELO4. Organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards.
- GELO5. Locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

The School of Journalism and Mass Communications has four overarching program learning objectives for all students in all classes. They are:

- CLO1. Demonstrate knowledge of the diversity of groups in a global society in relationship to communications.
- CLO2. Demonstrate the ability to think critically, creatively and independently.
- CLO3. Write correctly and clearly in forms and styles appropriate for the communications professions, audiences and purposes they serve. In journalism, these are the 5Ws, fact gathering, attribution, incorporating social media and other sources.
- CLO4. Demonstrate the ability to use tools and technologies appropriate for the communications professions in which they work.

Richard Campbell, Christopher R. Martin and Bettina Fabos, Media and Culture: An Introduction to Mass Communication (9th Edition with 2015 Update).
ISBN-10: 1457642425 | ISBN-13: 9781457642425

Other required online readings will be posted on the class home page throughout the semester. You will receive advance notice for all additional readings.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

Structure:

Regular class participation in discussions and exercises is required, as are readings from the text and assorted handouts and/or assigned online articles, three quizzes, two examinations and a term paper. If you must miss a class, please be sure to contact me beforehand and arrange to get notes from a classmate. Regular class attendance and showing up on time are vital – repeated unexcused absences and/or lateness will be noted and hurt your participation grade.

Quizzes:

There will be four in-class quizzes throughout the semester. These will be simple and straightforward, in multiple-choice format, and will test your general understanding of readings (if you read the chapters and come to class, you should sail through them). Quizzes will not take up an entire class period, so there will be a shortened lecture afterwards. Only your three highest quiz grades will count – if you do poorly on one quiz or need to skip one for personal reasons, you'll still be all right.

Exams:

Exams will be more detailed than quizzes in terms of reading and lecture content (a combination of multiple choice and short answer). The second exam is noncomprehensive (i.e. covers only material from after the midterm). To be fair to all students, exams and quizzes must be taken on the day scheduled, with exceptions granted for only well-documented legitimate emergencies (see syllabus supplement). The midterm exam will be given Thursday, Oct. 23, and the final exam will be held Tuesday, Dec. 16 – please clear your schedules for these dates.

Term Paper:

The paper assigned for this class will be due Thursday, Nov. 20. It will be an 8-to-10 page look at a topic chosen from within certain guidelines -- you'll receive a detailed handout on how to prepare your paper, and we'll discuss it in class early in the semester. You will turn in a one-page paper topic proposal Thursday, Sept. 25 – a couple of paragraphs about the topic you've chosen to write about. More details on all term paper-related matters will be discussed in the handout. The best papers will be organized around a central theme, with clear discussion of the specifics of the topic and analysis of the information presented. As noted in the syllabus supplement, papers are expected to be turned in on time, period.

NOTE that University policy F69-24, "Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading."

Grading Policy

Assignments are weighted as follows:

- Midterm exam: 25 percent (GELO 1, 2, 5; CLO 1, 2, 3)
- In-class quizzes (3 of 4): 10 percent (GELO 1, 2, 4, 5; CLO 1, 2, 3)
- Term paper: 25 percent (GELO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5; CLO 1, 2, 3, 4)
- Final exam: 25 percent (GELO 1, 2, 4, 5; CLO 1, 2, 3)
- Participation: 15 percent (GELO 1, 2; CLO 1, 2)

This course must be passed with a C or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

See syllabus supplement for information on attendance, deadlines, academic honesty and other issues not covered here.

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf> for more details.

Diversity and Controversial Issues

Throughout the semester, we will discuss matters relating to differences in race, culture, social class, sexuality and many other issues. In the beginning, this may seem uncomfortable, but my goal is to create an environment where we can talk about such matters thoughtfully, frankly and with respect and empathy.

Likewise, we will deal with matters involving social standards of what is deemed acceptable and unacceptable by media audiences and society in general. The objective is to enlighten, not offend, but we will talk about why certain types of content might upset certain audiences and not others. The aim is to create an atmosphere of respectful discussion, where all can express their opinions. The class works best when we all feel free to contribute.

University Policies

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
 - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor's process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
 - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf> requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/> to establish a record of their disability.

Accommodation to Students' Religious Holidays

San José State University shall provide accommodation on any graded class work or activities for students wishing to observe religious holidays when such observances require students to be absent from class. It is the responsibility of the student to inform the instructor, in writing, about such holidays before the add deadline at the start of each semester. If such holidays occur before the add deadline, the student must notify the instructor, in writing, at least three days before the date that he/she will be absent. It is the responsibility of the instructor to make every reasonable effort to honor the student request without penalty, and of the student to make up the work missed.
